Welcome new staff

As most of you know, Mrs. Elphick was successful in gaining the permanent post of deputy head teacher in January. This has meant we now have a vacancy on our senior leadership team (Mrs. Elphick's previous post). This post was due to be advertised and filled for September 2017. However, as Mrs. Gale has resigned her position as class teacher to start a new teaching role in Darren Las Primary we have filled the post on a temporary basis. Mr. Simon Lloyd has been seconded from Trowbridge Primary School until the end of the year. We are very fortunate to have Mr. Lloyd join us and he will be leading on IT and Assessment as well as teaching Class 6. We wish Mrs. Gale all the best in her new role and welcome Mr. Lloyd to our fantastic school.

Red Nose Day

We will be selling Red Noses in reception from Monday 27th February. We have bought 200 so we should have enough for everyone!! However, as there are 9 different ones, I expect the children will want to buy more than one! Remember there is a special 'Ultra Rare Silver One' and a 1 in 900 chance of getting 'Frankinose' who wins you a special prize.

On Red Nose Day, 24th March, we will be holding a 'Red non-uniform Day'. For a small donation of £1 the children can come dressed from head to foot in red! There will be a prize for the best dressed.

St David's Day Eisteddfod

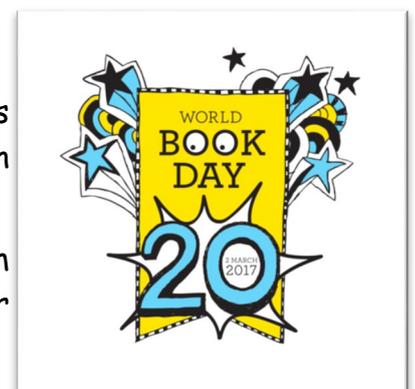

On Wednesday 1st March we will be celebrating St David's Day with our Eisteddfod Competitions. The children can wear their traditional costumes or Welsh outfits to school. All the children have been set an Eisteddfod home task to make a Welsh plate that wins them points for their house for just entering. However the best plates in each house win extra points and the overall 1st, 2nd and 3rd winners will win £20, £10 and £5 respectively—thanks to a donation from Mr and Mrs Francis.

Welsh cakes will be sold at playtime for 30p each, funds raised going to the school. Any donations of Welsh cakes would be appreciated.

World Book Day

World Book Day is on Thursday 2nd March. The children can dress up as their favourite book character for the day. All the children will receive a book token for £1 off any book.

We will also be holding our annual 'Reading Breakfast' from 8:20am—9:00am. Parents and children are welcome to join us for tea and toast in the hall.
